Why Students choose Hult?

- Top-ranked business school - Hult is ranked #34 in the U.S. and #59 in the world by The Economist (2013); the #57th Best Business School in the World and Top 10 for International Business, International Experience, International Mobility, International Faculty, and International Board by the Financial Times (2013).
- U.S.-accredited degree - Hult International Business School is accredited by the New England Association of Schools and Colleges (NEASC) and Association of MBAs (AMBA).
- Hult's unique Global Rotation - As part of the Global Rotation Program, you can pick your home campus and then spend up to three months studying at two others on no additional cost. Begin your degree program in Boston, then travel to Shanghai via London, or San Francisco via Dubai or New York.
- Faculty who possess hands-on business experience - Unlike other business schools that are research-oriented, Hult's faculty has real-world experience. Many have worked for companies like McKinsey, Coca-Cola, and Credit Suisse, while others have run their own businesses or developed their own patents. Hult's professors have taught and worked in developed economies and emerging markets, providing you with a unique lens on international business.
