

SUMMER HOLIDAYS AT THE OLDEST UNIVERSITY IN WESTERN EUROPE

Between Italian grammar and medieval buildings: Courses of Italian Language and Culture for Foreigners at the University of Bologna (24.06 – 26.07.2013)

The city of Bologna preserves the traces of past civilisations and the character of medieval splendour. Avidly visited by the Romantic writers and celebrated for the arts and culinary excellence, Bologna is animated by a cosmopolitan culture that is enriched by the presence of the University.

The University of Bologna (www.unibo.it), probably the first University in the western world, is now promoting the 2013 edition of the Summer School of Italian Language and Culture.

The courses are organized with the cooperation of the Department of Foreign Language and Literature and the Area of International Relations.

Courses are offered in three different options: a two-weeks Intensive Course for Beginners (level A1, A2, B1, June 24th – July 5th 2013, fee 400.00 Euro + 10.00 Euro administrative costs), a three-weeks Course for Beginners, Intermediate and Advanced (A1 and all superior levels, July 8th- 26th 2013, fee 600.00 Euro + 10.00 Euro administrative costs) and a combination of both Courses, for a total duration of five weeks (June 24th - July 26th 2013, fee 1,000 Euro + 10.00 Euro administrative costs).

Each format includes 50 hours of class teaching, cultural visits and optional week-end field trips, so allowing students a better fluency in the Italian language – both written and oral – and a deeper, more direct exposure to the Italian culture and traditions.
