

Institute of Pedagogy at Faculty of Humanities, Tbilisi State University, Georgia announces call for papers for the International Scientific Conference

Education and Globalization: Challenges in the 21st Century

to be held on 9-10 December, 2011

We invite the submission of papers addressing all aspects of Education Sciences and Teacher Education. These include but are by no means limited to:

Education Sciences:

- Education Management
- Education Policy
- Educational Programs and their Evaluation
- Quality Assurance in Schools and Higher Educational Institutions
- Inclusive Education
- Educational Standards and Practices
- School and Issues of Strategic Development
- Research in Education
- Distance/Online Education

Teacher Education:

- Problems in Teacher Education
- Issues of Teaching Subjects
- Globalization and Problems in Teaching
- Teacher and Student Competences
- School and Society
- Parents and Studying Process
- Teaching and Learning Process and its Assessment
- Civil Rights and Freedoms in Schools and Higher Educational Institutions
- Teacher Professional Development

Full papers of no more than 6 pages (Times New Roman/Sylfaen, font size 10, line interval 1, 5.) together with the information about the author(s) – name, academic degree, place of employment, position and e-mail address – should be sent to izabela.petriashvili@tsu.ge by 1 November, 2011.

Notification of acceptance will be sent by 7 November, 2011.

Conference languages: English and Georgian

Registration fee: EUR 50